

"BOYSUN SPRING" INVITES THE PEOPLES OF THE WORLD TO THE WARM MOUNTAINS

Ramazonov Islam Abrayqul o'g'li

Termiz State Pedagogical Institute

3rd year student of the history department of the Faculty of History

Scientific supervisor: Oybek Isayev Ahmadovich, Ph.D

"I saw, I traveled, there is no place like Boysun in this world"

Osman Azim

Abstract: On May 1-7 of this year, the international folk festival "Boysun Spring" held every two years will be held in the tourism complex located in the "Bibishirin" neighborhood of the Boysun district. At the same time, preparations are being made for the international festival in old Boysun, which attracts tourists from all over the world.

Key words: Boisun spring, preparation for the international festival, ancient customs, traditions, customs, handicrafts, handicrafts at the festival, introduction of the Boisun spring festival to the world, interest of foreign countries.

It is no secret that the "Boisun Spring" festival, which is being held in the village of Padang, Boisun district, is of great importance in conveying our national values to the next generation. In fact, it can be said that the formation of this culture was caused by a thousand-year history and the faithful life of the people of Boysun. In Boysun culture, you can see the historical elements of the culture and arts of the peoples of Central Asia, Iran, India and other countries. In 2001, among the 19 nominees of the world community, Boysun culture, which was recognized by UNESCO as "Oral and Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity", is still noted and honored with its breath. 1999 - Boisun District was announced by UNESCO as "Masterpiece of World Folk Art". In 2001, Boysun was included in the representative list of UNESCO's "Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity". In May 2002, the first open folklore festival of folk performers of Uzbekistan, Tajikistan and Kyrgyzstan was held in Khushmanzor district. "Alla, Olan, Lapar", folk games, ceremonies and rituals, folk games nominations. In Surkhandarya region, intensive preparations are being made for the "Boysun Spring" folklore festival, which invites international folk art performers, artisans and folklorists to Boysun region. Improvement of regional infrastructure, beautification and greening of the surrounding area, creation of comfortable conditions for participants and fans are ongoing. In addition, within the festival, scientific and creative conferences, seminars, round talks, public meetings, concerts, exhibitions and other events will be held. It is also planned to organize events and excursions to the attractions of the oasis. Exhibitions of national costumes, handicrafts, works of visual and practical art, artistic and documentary films, audio and video CDs, books, albums, photographs will be organized. 2008 - Boysun was included in the UNESCO World Heritage List. The restoration of the International Folklore Festival was established by Resolution 59 of the Cabinet of Ministers of the Republic of Uzbekistan dated February 7, 2022. The festival was held in April 2022 in the vast village of Padang, Boysun District. holding a prestigious festival in Boisun District, which has a rich intangible cultural heritage, has a deep meaning. This year marks the 22nd anniversary of the "Boysun Spring" festival, which was held for the first time in 2002. Boysun Spring, which has not been held for a while, still has its fans. Every two years, the festival, which gathers art lovers from around the world in one place, enchants people with traditional folk songs and dances. it is no exaggeration to say that it attracts its guests and foreign tourists. "Boysun Spring" held every two years is planned to be held in the first ten days of May 2024. Currently, Boysun district is actively preparing for the international festival, and the people of Boysun, who are waiting for local and foreign guests, are carrying out large-scale construction, repair and beautification works in the area from the district center to the complex where the festival will be held. Mayor of Surkhandarya region Ulugbek Kasimov visited Boysun district and got acquainted with the ongoing works and preparation processes. Before the visit, the construction of the roads leading to the complex, where the "Boysun Spring" international folklore festival will be held, and the work being done to ensure public order and security were inspected. In the complex, regional, city and district grasses, central and The location of additional scenes, parking lot, roads and corridors convenient for local and foreign tourists were presented. The head of the region noted that first of all, attention should be paid to security and public order. He defined the tasks that should be carried out in this regard to the officials. After that, in the field of service, including the preparation of restaurants and hotels, the district center, its highways and pedestrian walkways. the works in progress were inspected. The state of construction, repair and beautification works along the streets was studied. Officials are being instructed to speed up work in newly built hotels and public catering establishments, to complete them before the festival, to thoroughly prepare for each direction, to ensure that the quality of service is at the level of the set standard requirements. Our country It has long been known for its unique national art, values and traditions. All the necessary conditions have been created for further promotion of creativity and art samples preserved by our people for centuries, and for the peoples of the world to get to know them closely. In this way, it is planned to hold this international festival in order to make it more attractive, to share the festive mood with local residents and foreign guests, and also to increase the tourism potential of the oasis. The festival program also includes a bicycle marathon along the roads of the Khojamaikhana shrine in the mountainous area, the healing spring of Amonkhana, Khoja Sultan Vali, Qamari Aziz, Khokhakhakhkor father's shrines, Zovboshi and Kizil. it is planned to organize trips to tourist attractions such as canyon recreation centers and other archaeological and historical monuments of the region." So far, in the international competition, well-known countries such as Great Britain, Belgium, Israel, Russia, Belarus, Azerbaijan, Romania, Pakistan, the United Arab Emirates, India folklore ensembles expressed their desire to participate".

REFERENCES:

1. Sayfullo Tursunov, Qabil Rashidov "Boysun" book. Published in 2011
2. CULTURAL HERITAGE AND NEW MEDIA, 2016. "World Heritage"
3. Nigina Shoyeva "Surkhan Tongi" newspaper 11.04.2024 Issue No. 15
4. I.A. Ramazonov in the 11th issue of "Surkhan Tongi" newspaper, February 11, 2022